Husband and wife, John J. Kahn, Jr. and Jennifer Hodges Kahn provide a true team approach when representing their clients. The married couple spends hours both at the office and at home working on cases together, even long after their children have gone to bed. They are committed to providing the very best legal representation for their clients across the state of Texas. The firm added Darla M. McBride as an associate in 2008 and she shares the same passion, drive, and values as John and Jennifer.

The firm handles a variety of cases involving personal injury, criminal defense, employment, and immigration. In all cases, the attorneys at The Kahn Law Firm are there to help with compassion, understanding and professionalism.

John J. Kahn, Jr. is a devout Catholic who carries the traditions of his faith into the practice of law. Jennifer Kahn also has a strong Christian faith, which is exemplified in her honesty, integrity and compassion to the needs of her clients and their cases. This approach has helped them become successful trial lawyers and advocates for their clients.

Jennifer graduated from Texas A&M University and both are graduates of South Texas College of Law. John and Jennifer are both members of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association, the Harris County Criminal Lawyers Association and the Christian Trial Lawyers Association. The couple has three children: Carson, Cody, and Carolyn.
